

118th Birth Anniversary Commemoration of Babu Jagjivan Ram

Organised by Ettram Public Charitable Trust

Date: 5th April 2026

Venue: Chennai

On the occasion of the birth anniversary of Babu Jagjivan Ram, observed on 5th April 2026, Ettram Public Charitable Trust paid tribute to the great national leader and social reformer in a respectful and dignified manner. The commemoration aimed to honour the legacy, values, and contributions of Babu Jagjivan Ram, who dedicated his life to social justice, equality, and empowerment of the marginalized sections of society.

As part of the observance, Mr. Subramaniam, Managing Trustee of Ettram Public Charitable Trust and others, visited the statue of Babu Jagjivan Ram in Chennai and offered floral tributes and prayers in remembrance of the visionary leader. The tribute ceremony was conducted with deep respect and reverence, recognizing Babu Jagjivan Ram's invaluable contributions to the nation and his relentless efforts toward uplifting the oppressed and underprivileged communities. Towards the end of the observance water bottle and biscuits were distributed to the public.

Babu Jagjivan Ram was one of India's most distinguished leaders, known for his lifelong commitment to social equality, democratic values, and inclusive development. His leadership and dedication played a crucial role in strengthening India's democratic framework and promoting social harmony. His ideals continue to inspire generations to work toward a more just and equitable society.

During the tribute, Mr. Subramaniam highlighted the importance of remembering national leaders whose contributions have shaped the nation's progress. He emphasized that Babu Jagjivan Ram's vision of equality, dignity, and opportunity for all remains highly relevant even today. He further stated that social awareness and community-driven initiatives are essential to carry forward the legacy of such visionary leaders.

The Ettram Public Charitable Trust reaffirmed its commitment to promoting social justice, education, youth empowerment, and community welfare, in line with the ideals upheld by Babu Jagjivan Ram. The Trust continues to organize various social awareness programmes and community initiatives to uplift society and promote inclusive growth.

The tribute ceremony was conducted in a solemn and respectful manner, reflecting the Trust's dedication to honouring national leaders and preserving their legacy. The observance served as a reminder of Babu Jagjivan Ram's enduring contributions and inspired participants to work towards building a society based on equality, justice, and opportunity for all.
